

Athletic Notes

The Athletic Association is progressing nicely, having contracted for the fair grounds, and have the diamond practically completed. The grounds were in pretty bad condition but with the aid of a stump puller, several teams and a gang of men they have made a remarkable change in the appearance of the grounds.

Few people have been asked to donate so far, but no one has turned us down, realizing that there is quite a bit of expense in playing Baseball. The ones who have made donations follow:

Bess Sparks, Willis McKenzie, C. C. Davis, W. H. Fish, H. T. Young, W. E. Galt, L. V. Murrel, W. L. Richards, Floyd Miller, F. L. Durham, J. B. McKenzie, J. Pinkerton, Sutton & McCabe, A. B. Sparks.

HELTON--HOPKINS.

Miss Nancy Helton and Mr. Lum J. Hopkins were married Saturday, March 27 at Brodhead.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Helton, of the Freedom section and one of the county's best teachers. Mr. Hopkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hopkins and a very promising young man. To both, we with their host of friends, wish every good thing may be theirs.

There is a show for you on Fish's Bargain Counter.

LISTEN MEN

Next Thursday April 15, is clean up day at the Cemetery, so everybody be there or send a hand to clean off their bit. You that don't have friends buried there come and help us clean off the old soldiers' graves.

Let every woman be there with her hoe and rake. And I am sure the Boy Scouts will be glad to help in this great work. Meet us there next Thursday.

Over one half the cars in America are Fords and there are 250 different concerns making cars.
