

Mrs. Janie Taylor's Funeral Held Tuesday

Mrs. Janie Taylor, a resident of Mt. Vernon for many years, died at her home Sunday night after an eight-month illness.

Mrs. Taylor was born in Woodbine, Ky., Feb. 10, 1886, the daughter of Richard and Sarah Owen Sowder. Two years after her birth her family moved to Mt. Vernon where she died.

She married Milt Taylor, who preceded her in death many years ago.

She is survived by one son, Thomas, of Mt. Vernon and one daughter, Mrs. Virgie Hasty, Elizabeth, Ind., and five grandchildren. One brother, Grover C. Sowder, Hollywood, Calif., also survives.

She was a member of the Buckeye Christian Church for many years.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Cox Funeral Home with the Rev. George Murphy officiating. She was buried in Taylor Cemetery near Mt. Vernon.
