

MILT TAYLOR DEAD

Milt Taylor, 54 years of age, died in the Pennington Infirmary at London last Tuesday at twelve o'clock (noon) from the effect of a lark in the head with an axe in the hands of Tom Winkler a neighbor. From what we can learn Mr. Taylor and Winkler met Monday at an old house near Mr. Taylor's home and an argument came up and Winkler hit him in the head with the axe. There was only one eye witness, a young man by the name of Sowder. Mr. Taylor lived from Monday morning about nine o'clock till Tuesday at noon, but never regained consciousness.

Mr. Taylor was born and reared about one and one-mile north of Mt. Vernon and had lived on or near where he was born all his life. He was a member of the Christian Church, having joined at Buckeye when about fourteen years old. He was a good, law abiding citizen and his untimely death was a shock to all. He leaves a wife who was Miss Janie Sowder, daughter of Richard Sowder, Sr., one son, Thomas, and one daughter, Virgie, three brothers, John, Robert and App, and two sisters, Mrs. Lou Fralick and Mrs. Nannie Harrison, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the home conducted by Rev. J. W. Riddle after which he was laid in the family burying ground near by.
